

400 pp / ISBN 1-59102-421-8 / PB / $24

“Animal Rights and Human Morality is as relevant and important today as it was when first published. And just as necessary, for despite all we know about the minds and especially the feelings of animals, routine abuse of animals continues. Peppered with countless stories of his encounters with tough stockmen and steely laboratory workers, Rollin’s voice is an important one in the struggle for animal rights. Rollin brings a philosopher’s voice of reason to the often heated debate about cruelty to animals.”

—JANE GOODALL, PhD, DBE

Founder—the Jane Goodall Institute, and UN Messenger of Peace
www.janegoodall.org

“Animal Rights and Human Morality has always combined rigorous philosophical analysis, commonsense moral theory, and detailed, empirical knowledge of animal welfare issues to produce a compelling argument for deepening our concern for and improving our treatment of animals.... An accessible, stimulating, must-read for everyone who cares about animals, no matter what their background.”

—STEVE F. SAPONTZIS

Editor of Food for Thought: The Debate over Eating Meat
Professor Emeritus of Philosophy at California State University, Hayward

“[E]xplains why we should have moral concern for animals. It must be on the reading list of everybody who is concerned about the ethical use of animals.”

—TEMPLE GRANDIN

Author of Animals in Translation
Associate Professor of Animal Science at Colorado State University

BERNARD E. ROLLIN, University Distinguished Professor at Colorado State University, holds professorships in philosophy, biomedical science, and animal science, in addition to being a university bioethicist. The author of fourteen books and over three hundred articles, he is also the principal architect of the 1985 federal legislation dealing with the welfare of experimental animals, and is considered the father of the field of veterinary ethics.

For more information please contact MARCIA ROGERS
at 800-421-0351, ext. 214 or email Mrogers@prometheusbooks.com
Retail and wholesale discounts apply.

 PROMETHEUS BOOKS

59 John Glenn Drive / Amherst, NY 1422

Toll Free: 800-421-0351 / Fax: 716-691-0137 / www.prometheusbooks.com